SHIBA INU (SHIB)

SHIB is a decentralized, community-powered cryptocurrency built on the Ethereum blockchain. Launched in 2020, it quickly rose to global recognition—driven by meme culture, grassroots adoption, and viral momentum.

Initially introduced as a meme coin by the anonymous founder "Ryoshi," SHIB embraces a decentralized philosophy with no central leadership, earning trust from millions of users worldwide.

Today, SHIB is accepted by hundreds of merchants and integrated across major crypto platforms, positioning itself as more than just a trend—it's a key player in the evolving world of Web3 and DeFi.

As part of the AI Luno ecosystem, SHIB brings proven community traction and liquidity, strengthening our commitment to innovative, decentralized finance.
